The Weekly Regiſter.

LONDON, SATURDAY, October 17, 1730. NUMB. XXVII

Humanum eſt errare. Adag.

THERE is no Fault ſo inexcuſable as wilful Blindneſs. To perſiſt in an Error after due Conviction is Folly in the Abſtract. Our Society, therefore, think themſelves highly indebted to their ingenious Correſpondent for his laſt Weeks candid Admonition with regard to Initial Letters, and return him their hearty Thanks for his friendly Aſſiſtance by Way of Earneſt. It is ingenuous to confeſs the Truth. They have found by Experience (notwithſtanding their utmoſt Care and their more than common Expences in procuring the beſt of Intelligence) that their Neglect of ſo important a Particular has proved the principal Check to the Progreſs of this Paper. They are, to their Coſt, fully convinced that it is a fruitleſs Attempt to run counter to the Reigning Mode, and that a Modern News-Paper without a Preamble makes as awkward a Figure as a Play without a Dedication; which (tho' the Plan be never ſo artfully worked up) as it comes out with no Recommendation, meets with no Encouragement, and is ſoon doomed to lye buried in the celebrated Mr. Jones's Waſt-Paper Warehouſe, unleſs it accidentally makes the ſecond Appearance under a Chriſtmas-Pye. This Week, therefore, our Gentlemen met in a full Body, and very ſeriouſly debated on Ways and Means for the Amuſement of the Town in a more faſhionable Way; and an Amendment to their preſent Scheme was agreed to Nem. Con. and an alamode Introduction was pronounced abſolutely neceſſary: But the Manner in which it ſhould be executed remained long the Subject of Debate. Several Motions were made accordingly. Old Reynard propoſed to wheedle in with the Court, and take up the Cudgels in Defence of thoſe at the Helm; remarking ſlyly enough, that it was the ſafeſt as well as eaſieſt Way to ſwim with the Current, and in Point of Argument to eſpouſe the right Side of the Queſtion. Young Hotſpur, on the other Hand, was for publiſhing ſmart Political Reflections, and ſtanding ſtiffly up for the Liberty of the Preſs, inſiſting, with more Warmth than Wiſdom, that the beſt Way in the World to eſtabliſh a Paper and make it a favourite Amuſement was to fly in the Face of the Government, and have his Majeſty's Greyhounds forever chacing the Author. But as the Majority of our Society are firmly attached to our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment in Church and State, that Motion was over-ruled. Old Snarl was for chiming in with our Brother Grubs, and for expoſing to ridicule every Man who had more Merit than Aſſurance; ſince nothing met with a more Cordial Reception than Calumny and Detraction: For moſt Men have Hawks-Eyes to diſcern the Failings of their Neighbours, but are as blind as Owls to their own Imperfections. But young Love-wit interpoſed and begged them to obſerve a ſtrict Neutrality and to relinquiſh all Thoughts of Party Debates and biting Reflections. "Let us leave Caleb, ſaid he, and Fog to handle "their Political Flails, and threſh the Whigs without Mer-"cy; let thoſe on the other Hand who have entered the "Liſts and taken up the Cudgels deal about their Back-"ſtrokes and Fore-ſtrokes at the Tories, and mawl them at "their Pleaſure: Let the Grubæans be witty and ill-natured "by themſelves: But let us take a wiſer, a leſs offenſive "Courſe: Let us profeſs ourſelves Advocates of the Fair "Sex; and as the Ladies have no Coffee-Houſes to reſort to, "let our Exordium be a proper Amuſement for the Tea-"Table. I dare engage to procure you a Patroneſs of the "higheſt Rank as well as Merit, who ſhall ſmile upon "your Paper and give a Sanction to your Undertaking."

This Scheme tickled the Ears of moſt of our Members; who, being conſcious that Beauty joined with Power is irreſiſtibly perſuaſive, readily gave their hearty Aſſent to ſo agreeable, ſo promiſing a Propoſition.

The Introductory Part, therefore, of this Paper ſhall for the future conſiſt of Miſcellaneous Compoſitions, in Proſe and Verſe, on various Subjects, ſometimes ſerious and ſometimes comic, always avoiding (purſuant to the laſt Propoſal of our worthy Member Mr. Love-wit) all Party Diſputes, whether Political or Divine, having no Ambition to build our Merit (as young Hotſpur would have us) on any Satyrical Animadverſions either on Church or State. Nor ſhall we amuſe ourſelves, or Readers, with any Thing trifling or impertinent. Our Aim ſhall always be to make our Labours univerſally uſeful, and to be gay and entertaining without Offence; to endeavour to treat our fair Readers with Decorum, and to pay the juſt Deference and Reſpect that is due to their Sex: For which Reaſon we promiſe never to lay before them any Thing that ſhall raiſe a guilty Bluſh. We ſhall, therefore, with Diſdain, reject all Performances in the Curlean Dialect, being determined that nothing ſhall meet with any Reception from us but what is chaſte; and if amorous and warm, wrapped up in the cleaneſt Linnen. For Lord Roſcommon, who was a great Man as well as one of the beſt of Poets, has very juſtly obſerved;

Immodeſt Words admit of no Defence;
For Want of Decency is Want of Senſe.

As to the latter Part of our Paper, it ſhall, as uſual, be furniſhed with the beſt and freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic; and we ſhall ſtill continue, where Occaſion offers, when a Fact happens to be too heavily related, to heighten the Tale, and not confine ourſelves to a literal Tranſcription. But in order to render this Paper ſtill more acceptable to the Public, and more entertaining and familiar to the Ladies, who perhaps may be greater Strangers to Geography than the Gentlemen, we propoſe to mention the Situation of each obſcure Place and the Government to which it peculiarly belongs. As to ſuch Parts as are in our Britiſh Dominions and nearer Home, the Addition, we preſume, of their reſpective Counties will be deemed ſufficient. If this new Propoſal meets with a favourable Reception, no Pains ſhall be wanting (and we will ſtudy all the Charms of Variety) to entertain our Readers, and as much as in us lies to deſerve their Favours. If any Gentlemen or Ladies will, from Time to Time, indulge us with their friendly Aſſiſtance, by Letters directed to the Printer of this our Regiſter (Poſt paid) all imaginable Care ſhall be taken to ſet them in the moſt advantageous Light; and we ſhall be always ready, in the moſt public Manner, to acknowledge our Obligations.

Tho' our Friend Mr. Love-wit has prevailed on the abovementioned Lady to eſpouſe our Cauſe; yet ſhe deſires to be concealed behind the Curtain. He has, therefore, at our joint Requeſt, drawn up a Dedication, which ſhe has promiſed to accept under the borrowed Name of CLOE; and to which he humbly hopes our Readers will be equally indulgent.

To the Beauteous CLOE.

In Imitation of the firſt ODE of HORACE.

Trahit ſua quemque Voluptas. Virg.

BRIGHT PATRONESS, of Form Divine,
On theſe our Weekly Labours ſhine:
If you approve, if you commend,
Den———s himſelf will be our Friend.
The moſt ſevere will never dare,
To contradict a Judge ſo fair.
When Beauty once a Sanction gives,
The Work protected ever lives.
Not India's Wealth can tempt the Swain
To quit the Pleaſures of the Plain:
The Merchant ſcorns his rural Eaſe,
And ventures thro' the ſtormy Seas.
O'er Hills and Dales the Huntſman flies,
And the bleak Wind and Froſt defies:
The Soldier fights, and courts Applauſe;
The Lawyer boaſts his Client's Cauſe:
Some near a murm'ring Brook recline,
And waſte the Day in Mirth and Wine:
CLOE alone attracts my Eyes,
Go, Muſe, and tell thy Maſter's Tale
In tuneful Odes that may prevail;
To diſtant Realms reveal his Flame,
And Eternize the Matchleſs Dame. L.

"The Paquet of Petitions is come to Hand, and ſhall be "made proper Uſe of as Occaſion offers; for which Favour "our obliging Correſpondent J. H. has the Thanks of our "Society."

SATURDAY, October 10.

Thurſday laſt, towards Noon, a proper Perſon being ſent from the E. India Houſe to mend the Salt-Petre Bags on board the Marlborough, at Blackwall, and being conducted by two of the Crew to execute his Orders, a Snuff of Candle falling ſet Fire to that combuſtible Commodity (of which there were many Hundreds of Sacks) inſomuch that in a few Moments that fine Ship was no other than a moſt dreadful Gulph of liquid Flames which overſpread it like a Torrent. With the utmoſt Difficulty the Perſons on board ſaved themſelves, more particularly ſome Women; and Capt. Mickefield's Eſcape was, we hear, little leſs than miraculous, by ſwinging himſelf (tho' pretty corpulent) out of his Great-Cabin Window, by a Rope which unexpectedly fell within his reach when he was reduced to the laſt Extremity. No Perſon periſhed: But the fine Elephant, for which he had, not long before, refuſed 500*l.* came from Indus to Thames to meet his Fate, periſhing with the Ship, &c. The Loſs is computed to exceed 20,000*l.* and might have been abundantly greater; but by timely Aſſiſtance and good Conduct ſeveral rich Ships, which lay in a Teer with her, were happily preſerved.

Two Days before, the Barns, Hay-Ricks, Out-Houſes, &c. belonging to Wm. Huggins, Eſq; in Hampſhire, were conſumed alſo by Fire, to 1000*l.* Value. This Gentleman was then here, and is gone to examine into the Occaſion of that Diſaſter.

The 2d Inſt. about One in the Morn. a Fire broke out at the Houſe of Mr. Geo. Cawley, at Kelſel-Hill near Cheſter, which conſumed his Dwelling-Houſe, Goods, Barns, Stables, Cow-Houſe, Corn and Hay, whereby a very honeſt induſtrious Man and a numerous Family of Children are reduced to real Want; his All being deſtroyed.

The Hanover, Capt. Warren, arrived at Falmouth, was, in her Paſſage from Jamaica, on the 6th of Aug. 6 Leagues W. S. W. from the Iſle of Pines, taken by a Spaniſh Guarda Coſta, commanded by a Mulatto, named Juan Metero (whom our Tars nick-name Mulatto Jack) who carried her ſix Leagues Eaſt from Cape Corientes, and there plundered her of moſt of the Cabbin-Furniture, all the Wearing-Apparel, Proviſions, and indeed of whatever they liked, to a very conſiderable Amount; which done they gave Leave for her to proceed on her Voyage.——"We have likewiſe "frequent Accounts of many ſuch Pranks played our Tra-"ders by their loving Friends the American Spaniards; but "which are not at all approved of by the Spaniards of "Europe."

Thurſday Even. laſt, Tho. Maſters, Eſq; of Holborn-Court Gray's-Inn, was (by his Laundreſs and a Waiter who daily uſed to attend him) found in a moſt deplorable Condition, on his Bed, ſtabbed and mangled in divers Parts, with a Pen-Knife he had in his Hand: His Door being bolted within, they broke it open.——"This unhappy Gentlemen "languiſhed till Sunday Morn. and then expired.——Arra "now; call not this Iriſh; for theſe Saturday's Paragraphs "were not written till Monday, when we had Notice of the "Gentleman's Death; and it comes in here merely to avoid "mentioning him twice; which Method may be frequently "uſed on other Occaſions."——Thus much, hitherto, for odd Accidents and Animadverſions: And we again return to the Occurrences which may be properly brought under the Head Saturday.

We are aſſured from Windſor-Caſtle, that the Diſturbances in the Iſland Jerſey are intirely quieted, with no farther Conſequences than the Impriſonment of eight of the Ring-leaders in thoſe Commotions.

During the approaching Winter, 100 Men are to be conſtantly employed Hyde-Park, in towards proſecuting the Deſigns of Cha. Withers, Eſq; Surveyor-Gen. of his Majeſty's Works, &c.

Grand Preparations are making at the Opera-Houſe in the Hay-Market, in providing new Dreſſes, Scenes, &c. And they will begin to perform as ſoon as the Court comes to St. James's; which they ſay will be very ſpeedily.

Yeſterday at the Quarter Seſſions held at Weſtminſter, 19 Bills of Indictment were found by the Grand Jury againſt ſeveral Perſons about Covent-Garden, for keeping diſorderly Houſes.——At the ſaid Seſſions a Bill of Indictment was found againſt a Footman, for raviſhing a Girl under eight Years of Age, and giving her the Foul Diſeaſe.

This Day, the Keeper of the Gate-Houſe was fined 5*l.* for Neglect of Duty, in not duly bringing in his Calender.

Mr. Stagg, of Weſtminſter-Hall, Bookſeller, having made extraordinary Intereſt for the Poſt of Cryer of the Court of Seſſions of the Peace for Weſtminſter and its Liberty, in the late Mr. Randal's room, was choſen in laſt Wedneſday; But, to the no ſmall Surpriſe of many who knew what Pains, &c. he had been at to obtain the ſame, he now wholly declines the Office.

Mr. Read, of White-Fryers, Printer, who was ſo dangerouſly hurt at the Fleet-Street Fire, ſome Months paſt, is, thro' the extraordinary Care taken of him by Mr. Holloway, the Surgeon, in a very fair Way of Recovery.

Rob. &c. Wedneſday laſt John Hawes, Eſq; of Gray's-Inn, was attacked coming from Copenhagen-Houſe, by two Foot-pads, who robbed him of a Silver Watch, 5 Guineas, and ſome Silver.——The ſame Night about Eight, Mr. Moreton of Stretham, on his Return Home from London, was robbed alſo by two Foot-pads, near the Waſh-Way in Stockwell, of eight Ells of Holland, his Watch, and 6*s.* 6*d.* and ſome Half-pence: The Rogues took away his Horſe's Bridle.——The next Night, was a Night of ſucceſsful Adventures for divers of our Adventurers, as we are going to make appear.——Then it was that ſoon after Candlelight, a Show-Glaſs, in which were ſeveral Things of great Value, was ſtollen from the Shop of Mr. Grimſtead, Toyſeller in St. Paul's Church-Yard.——And the ſame Night, the Houſe of Mr. Julian, Oilman, in Jermyn-Street, was ſtripped of Lead to the Value of ſeveral Pounds.——Alſo, about Seven, two Villains came into a Collar-maker's Shop at Hockley in the Hole, and asked for a Couple of Whips; which being delivered by the Miſtreſs of the Houſe (all the Family being abſent) they tied them about her Neck, and dragged her into a Back Room, when one of them rifled the Houſe of all they could carry away; after this they put the Woman's Head in a Pail of Water, where ſhe was almoſt drowned before one of her Servants came in and took her out: This and the Fright put her into ſuch Fits, that her Life ſeems in great Danger.——The ſame Night, about Ten, a Gentleman of Bernard's Inn was robbed of a Guinea and a Half, by three Street-Robbers, in Flower-de-luce Court, Fleet-Street; one held a Piſtol to his Breaſt, another ſearched his Pockets, while the third kept a good Look-out.——How lucky ſoever that Thurſday Night proved to the above-mentioned Gentlemen, it was not ſo auſpicious to Lord Alexander (ſo they call a very noted Tranſlator, al. Cobler of Scotland-Yard) whoſe Honour was then ſeized in a Night-Cellar, on account of a Loan he made from a Gentleman, pretty much in Liquor, whom he undertook to light to his Habitation; but wheedled him into a Gin-Shop, the Corner of Damnation-Alley, near Charing-Croſs, and there borrowed three Guineas. This he owned when taken; and that he had ſwallowed one, ſpent one, and had entered on the third, having about him only 17*s.* 6*d.* His Lordſhip is now in Newgate.

Pref. The Rev. Mr. Wright, Rector of Eaſt-Harling in Norfolk, was, laſt Wedneſday, collated Prebendary of Litchfield, on the Reſignation of the Rev. Mr. Rider.——The Rev. Mr. Tod was lately preſented to the Living of Wilbury in the County and Dioceſe of York.——Tueſday laſt Mr. Ald. Jacob was choſen Chamberlain of the City of Canterbury, in the room of Ant. Oughton, Eſq; lately elected Mayor of that City.

Mar. Saturday laſt, the only Son to Mr. Bernard Lintot, Bookſeller in Fleet-Street, was married to the Daughter of Sir John Aubrey, Bart.

Deaths. Laſt Thurſday died, at his Houſe at Buſh-hill, Mr. Tho. Gould, a noted Banker in Lombard-Street. He has left a good Eſtate to his Family.——As did, the ſame Day, the Wife of Mr. Haggard, a very eminent Diſtiller, at Bromley, near Bow.

MONDAY, October 12.

"In our laſt, we gave ſome Account of a notable Piece "of concerted Villany, perpetrated at Briſtol, concerning "which we have the following farther Particulars, extracted "from a long Letter from thence: Viz."

Briſtol, Oct. 10. Monday laſt, about Three in the Afternoon, a Girl aged Ten, Daughter of John Long, a Rigger of Ships, ſtanding at her Father's Door in Marſh-Street, near Mr. Boltley's Houſe, ſaw a Perſon of a tall Stature, very much Pock-fretten, with ſeveral Scars in his Face with that Diſtemper, wearing light Cloaths and Wig, Ruffles and White Gloves, pull out of his Boſom a Letter, which he threw into Mr. Boltley's Shop and afterwards went towards the Key: The Girl calling to Mind the Talk that had been about the Firing Mr. Packer's Houſe, immediately ſpoke of it to ſome Neighbours, and by her Deſcription he was taken on the Key and committed to Newgate. He ſays his Name is John Power, Son of an Attorney in Dublin. It is the general Opinion he is one of the Confederates; for the Boy who had been in Bridewell upwards of a Fortnight, being brought to the Tolſey, at firſt Sight declared he was the Perſon who gave him one of the Letters to carry to Mr. Packer, whoſe Evidence corroborated the Girl's and the other Boy's. And another Circumſtance very material is, that the ten Guineas which Mr. Packer was to put into a Hole in Swan-Lane, (where for a Mark ſeveral Chalks were ſcored, ſpecified in the Letter he was taken up for) was oppoſite his Lodgings in Mr. Mac-Manus's Houſe, and from a Hole or Window he could ſee if any was left without being diſcovered. From Monday Night (when he was firſt committed) he faſted to Wedneſday Night, and then only eat a Morſel of buttered Toaſt, and drank a Glaſs of Water, and but little ſince. Wedneſday Even. he requeſted the Favour of the Rev. Mr. Rogers to come to him: Accordingly that Gentleman, with the Rev. Mr. Smith and Mr. Winpenny went to him, and asking him the Purport of his Meſſage, he ſaid, that as he knew himſelf to be innocent of the Matter he was committed for, he deſired they would adminiſter the Sacrament to him thereupon; but they thought fit not to agree to his Requeſt. It was imagined the unheard of Piece of Revenge in deſtroying Mr. Packer's Houſe would have been a ſufficient Satisfaction to thoſe Summoners; however they thought fit to let him know otherwiſe; for in the Letter of Monday they tell him, "He might have pre-"vented all that had happened; and ſtill were for him to "put the Money in the Place above-mentioned in Swan-"Lane, if not, tho' he went into 20 Houſes they would burn "them all, and purſue him till he had nothing left to ſubſiſt "on: But if he agreed to their Propoſal, neither he nor "his Family ſhould come to any farther Harm; and, by "G——d, if he did not, they would murder him the firſt "Opportunity." Farther telling him, "That he had "ſhewn a bad Example to other Gentlemen, and they "would finiſh with him before they begun with any other, "which as yet they had not done." And conclude, "That they might once happen to meet with him alone "without a Guard, and that the Pitcher never goes ſo often "to the Well but it may come home broke at laſt." Accordingly they have made a ſecond ſurpriſing and hazardous Puſh to verify their Intention; for about Mid-Night, laſt Monday, they flung ſome Fire-Balls on Meſſ. Teague and Far's Warehouſes in Cannon's-Marſh, wherein, we are informed, was 10,000 l. worth of Hemp and Cordage, in Hopes thereby to fire Mr. Clemens's Dwelling-Houſe, the back Part of which is adjoining to the ſaid Ware-houſes, wherein Mr. Packer and his Siſters have lodged ſince their Houſe was burned. In their Letter of laſt Tueſday they ſay, "They would not have Mr. Packer fill himſelf up with "ſuch Fancies as to think to catch them, for that he never "will as long as Briſtol ſtands; and that if there is 10,000l. "Reward given out, the Perſons will never be known," concluding with telling who they ſent the Letters by. And laſt Thurſday Morn. Mr. Daniel, one of our Coroners, had a Letter from thoſe Perſons, and is ſeverely threatened, as they ſay, for his Officiouſneſs; and telling him for Fact, what they ſaid in it ſhould be effected very ſoon. Our Mayor and Aldermen are very aſſiduous in examining daily Perſons taken upon Suſpicion, and uſe all poſſible Methods to endeavour a Diſcovery of the reſt of thoſe People who have ſo inhumanly treated Mr. Packer.——We ſince learn, that four Men are taken on Suſpicion at Bath: And that laſt Thurſday Morn. on a Poſt oppoſite to the Houſe of Mr. Elton, in Queen's-Square, was wrote; This Houſe is to be burned.——His Majeſty promiſes Pardon to any Accomplice who ſhall make Diſcovery, and 100*l.* Reward on Conviction of any concerned in this unaccountable Villany.

Saturday laſt, at the Gen. Quar. Seſſ. of the Peace for Weſtm. 23 Bills of Indictment were found by the Grand Jury, againſt as many different Perſons, for keeping diſorderly Houſes.——And then alſo a Bill of Indictment was found againſt a certain noted Matron, for keeping a common Bawdy-Houſe in St. James's Pariſh.

As for Mrs. Suſ. Pane ſhe pleaded guilty to an Indictment found againſt her, for keeping a noted Nanny-Houſe in Windſor-Court, Drury-Lane, and was committed to Tothill-Bridewell, there to be cloſely employed, for a whole Year, in Milling Doll, and then to remain till ſhe finds Security for her good Behaviour for two Years.——The ſaid Seſſions is adjourned to the 30th of next Month.

Yeſterday the mad Joyner of Barbican left a little Coffin, filled with a good Store of nonſenſical Papers, in Weſtm.-Abbey, in the ſame Manner as he had formerly left one in St. James's Chappel-Royal, and another in St. Paul's Cathedral.

The ſame Day, a young Infant was found in a private Part of St. Andrew's Church-Yard, Holborn, ſuppoſed to have lain there ſome Time: On it appeared ſeveral Marks of Violence.

About eleven, the ſame Night, a Gardener and his Servant, paſſing thro' Stable-Yard into St. James's Park, (neither of them ſeemingly very ſober) were no ſooner got in but they began very groſly to abuſe the Sentinel there on Duty, making ſeveral Seditious Reflections on the Royal Family, for which the Soldier endeavoured to ſeize them; but the Gardener, having a Spade in his Hand, ſtruck him over the Head, and cut his Skull in a deſperate manner; but he recovering, knocked down his Adverſary with his Fire-lock. They were both ſeized and are now in the Gate-Houſe.

Rob. &c. Alſo the ſame Night about 12, the Watch near Covent-Garden, ſeized a Fellow on Suſpicion, he having a Quantity of Wet Linnen, and could not give any ſatisfactory Account how he came by it. While one Watchman ſecured the Linnen, another had Charge of the Man: But the Priſoner, watching a favourable Occaſion, neatly ſtruck up his Keepers Heels, and exerciſed his own to a very good Purpoſe, getting clear away.——The ſame Day, a Woman was committed to Newgate by the Ld. Mayor, for ſtealing from ſeveral Perſons, as ſhe was taking her Walks in Newgate-Market, two Fowls, one Gooſe, a Loin of Mutton, a Loin of Lamb, and three Pieces of Beef: She appeared to be a very good Market-Woman that Way, and to have long followed this Buſineſs.——And alſo the ſame Day, Eliz. Edwards was ſent to the ſame Place for ſtealing two Pieces of Cambrick, Value 4*l.* out of the Houſe of Mr. Lee of Spittal-Fields.

Pref. His Excellency Stephen Poyntz, Eſq; is appointed Governor to his Royal Highneſs the Duke.——The Rev. Mr. Geo. Sayer, Chaplain to the late Ld. Biſhop of Durham, and Brother to Dr. Exton Sayer, his Majeſty's Surveyor Gen. is collated to the Archdeaconry of Durham, vacant by the Death of Dr. Booth, late Dean of Briſtol.——The Rev. Mr. Popham is preſented to the Rectory of Cledon, in the County of Devon and Dioceſe of Exeter.

Deaths. Thurſday Morn. laſt, died at Blechingley, in Surrey, in his 38th Year, Joſeph Ogilvie, Eſq; Kinſman to Sir Geo. Ogilvie of Barras, in Scotland, Bart. by whoſe Demiſe a very conſiderable Eſtate devolves to his only Son, about 16 Years of Age.——Friday laſt died, in Caſtle-Street near the Mews, Tho. Williams, Eſq; one of the Grooms of the removing Wardrobe, which Place of 130*l. per Ann.* Salary, is in the Gift of the Ld. Chamberlain.——Saturday Night laſt, about Ten, died at his Houſe in Hanover-Square, the Rt. Rev. Wm. Talbot, Ld. Bp. of Durham, being the 71ſt Biſhop of that Dioceſe; He was Ld. Lieut. of that County, one of the Governors of the Charter-Houſe, and one of the Society for propagating the Goſpel in Foreign Parts. Cha. Talbot, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parl. for the City of Durham, and his Majeſty's Sollicitor Gen. is this worthy Prelate's Son.——The ſame Even. Mr. Philip Meniconi, formerly a very eminent Italian Merchant, died of an Apoplexy, at his Houſe at Sunbury in Middleſex, whither he had retired from Buſineſs for ſome Years.——Alſo the ſame Night died, at his Chambers in Clifford's-Inn, James Sheppard, Eſq; a very eminent Attorney of Suſſex, and Clerk of the Peace for that County, which Place is in the Gift of the Earl of Hertford.

TUESDAY, October 13.

We hear, that his Majeſty's Ships of War in the American Seas will be ordered to take all the Spaniſh Guarda Coſta's they can meet with, and to treat ſuch as Pyrates, which are not commiſſioned by the K. of Spain, or the Viceroys of Mexico and Peru; which will in all Probability put an intire Stop to the Progreſs of thoſe Pyrates, who are almoſt all Commiſſioned by Petty Governors in New-Spain, whoſe Authority, for granting ſuch Commiſſions, is not acknowledged by the Court of Spain.

It is confidently affirmed, that Saturday the 24th Inſt. is fixed on for the Court's removing to St. James's for the Winter: And that the King, deſigning to repoſe himſelf at Richmond (where he dines this Day) will ſee none but the Prime Miniſters of State during his Majeſty's Stay there.

Saturday Night laſt, about Ten, ended the Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for Weſtm. where the Grand Jury, before they were diſcharged, delivered a Paper into Court, ſigned by them all, thanking Sir John Gonſon, the Chairman of that Seſſions, for his moſt learned and ingenious Charge given the firſt Day of the Seſſions, which was very uſeful and inſtructive to them in the Matters proper for their Inquiry; and believing that the ſame may be of public Uſe and Benefit to his Majeſty's Subjects in general, by improving their Knowledge in the Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom, as well as fully demonſtrating the Excellency of our Conſtitution and Government above our Neighbour Nations, and in ſo lively a Manner ſetting forth the many invaluable Bleſſings which we enjoy under his Majeſty's Reign, &c. they deſired Sir John Gonſon to permit his ſaid Charge to be printed.

They write from Canterbury, that there is Money left in the Hands of Mr. Norris, a Proctor in that City, for one Half-yearly Payment of the Augmentation appointed by his Grace the A. B. to the Incumbents of ten poor Vicarages in that Dioceſe, and due laſt Michaelmas.

Laſt Saturday a Fire happened at Dunſtable, in Bedfordſhire, by a Flaſh of Lightning, which immediately burnt a Houſe, together with a Child left there.

The ſame Day a Bull belonging to Ld. Halifax was killed alſo by a Flaſh of Lightning, at his Ldſhip's Farm at Apps-Court.

Rob. &c. Saturday Night laſt, about Nine, Mr. James Burroughs, was robbed in the Fields between Putney and Wandſworth, by two Foot-Pads, of a Silver Watch and 14*s.* But before the Rogues were out of Sight, he ſeized one of them, named Brownlow Steed, thro' the Aſſiſtance of another Perſon, and carried him before a Magiſtrate at Batterſea, who committed him to the County Jail for Surrey.——The ſame Day a Bill of Indictment was found, at Hicks's-Hall, againſt Tho. Rivers and Joſhua Cornwall, on a Charge of ſtealing out of the Houſe of Mr. Fenwick, of Bur-Street, St. Catherine's, Plate, &c. to the Value of 200*l.* and upwards.——Wm. Read, was alſo that Day, committed to Newgate, on the Oath of James Tew, for aſſaulting him and robbing him of 12*s.* on the Highway.——As was likewiſe Wm. Hayward, on the Oath of Geo. Hogſplace, for entering his Shop and ſtealing a Hat.——The well-known Rich. Shaw, of Wood-Street, was tried Yeſterday at Guildhall, for defrauding Sam. Bayley, a Country-Man, of divers Pieces of Stuffs, under Pretence of buying a large Quantity: But for a Flaw in the Indictment, he was acquitted. However the Fraud appearing very plain to the Court, he is ſent to Newgate, and will have a new Trial at the Old-Bailey this enſuing Seſſions.

Pref. We hear, that Dr. Chandler, Ld. Bp. of Litchfield and Coventry, will be tranſlated to the See of Durham, in the room of Dr. Talbot, deceaſed.——Laſt Week Dr. Cobden, Chaplain to the Lord Biſhop of London, was, by the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, collated to the Rectory of St. Auſtin and St. Faith near St. Paul's, in the room of Dr. Waterland, promoted to the Rectory of Twickenham in the County of Middleſex.——The Rev. Mr. Tho. Chatfield, was lately preſented to the Rectory of Bladcome in Suſſex, and Dioceſe of Chicheſter.——As was alſo the Rev. Mr. Burch to that of Slinkney in Lancaſhire.——Joſeph Buckeridge, Eſq; formerly Capt. Lieut. of a Marching Reg. of Foot, on the Iriſh Eſtabliſhment, is appointed Capt. Lieut. in a Comp. in the Earl of Deloraine's Reg. of Foot, lately Lieut. Gen. Maccartney's.

Mar. A Marriage is, we hear, treating between Sir Hen. Lyddel, Bart. and Lady Anne Cowper, Earl Cowper's Siſter.

Birth. About Seven, laſt Friday Even. the Lady of Ld. Viſc. Middleton was ſafely delivered of a Son and Heir, to the exceſſive Joy of that noble Family.

Deaths. Our laſt Letters from Jamaica bring Advice of the Deceaſe of Mr. Dunevan, his Majeſty's Agent-Victualler there. The Place is very profitable, and in the Gift of the Lds. of the Admiralty.——Lately died the Daughter of Mr. Dunkley, Ld. Keeper to K. Charles II. and was, Yeſterday, purſuant to her laſt Will and Teſtament, buried in the Cloyſters of Weſtm.——Ld. Clifford of Cudleigh died lately at his Seat at Cannington, near Bridgewater.

WEDNESDAY, October 14.

His Majeſty's Ship Garland, now riding at Sheerneſs, is appointed to proceed for Cadiz, on the above-hinted Errand; and if the ſaid hoped-for Order can be procured from the Catholic Court, then and therewith to make the beſt of its Way to New-Spain: And our S. S. Comp. are in great Hopes of her Arrival there BEFORE a Day AFTER the Fair. If ſo, their Ship P. Wm. may make her Market.

Yeſterday Afternoon begun, and about Nine at Night ended the firſt Gen. Seal in Chancery, at the Ld. High-Chancellor's Houſe in Lincolns-Inn-Fields. A Motion was there made in Favour of John Cummings, Eſq; Plaintiff, againſt the Ld. Mayor and Aldermen of this City, for a Deſtringus to go againſt them, for Want of an Anſwer to a Bill in Chancery exhibited by him; which was granted.——The ſecond Gen. Seal commences, alſo there, next Tueſday.

They write from Deal, that when his Majeſty's Ship Lively had fired her Salute Guns, on Sunday laſt, on account of the King's Coronation, the two Dutch Men of War hung out all their Colours and Streamers, and fired each 20 Guns, in Reſpect to the Day.

The celebrated Mrs. Oldfield, who was judged paſt all Danger, is now given over by her Phyſicians.

Yeſterday Morn. a new-born Infant, with ſeveral Marks of Violence about it, was found dead in a Ditch near Mount-Mill.

We learn, that near a Place called Foulkſton, ſomewhere in the Country, a Woman lately brought forth Twins, a Boy and a Girl; and had done the very ſame twice before within leſs than four Years.

Purſuant to the late Act of Parl. about 20 Fugitive Debtors were Yeſterday diſcharged at Guildhall.

The ſame Day, a Man who kept a Night-Houſe without Temple-Bar, went to a certain Nanny-Houſe in Parkhurſt-Lane, and there fairly hanged himſelf dead with his own Garters.——" Quere; Was not this one of thoſe they call " Hanging-Culls, of which Society was, if Fame lies not, " the late M. Motteaux? "

Mr. Juſtice Greenwood, of Bloomſbury, going into Drury-Lane Theater, laſt Saturday Even. caught a poor miſerable Link-Fellow moving off with his Handkerchief. But next Morn. when the Wretch was brought before him, he pleaded his Neceſſity and Penitence ſo pathetically, ſhewed a ſad mortified Leg and a Recommendation, from a Perſon of Worth, to procure him Admittance into the Hoſpital, that, with only a ſmart Reprimand, his good Worſhip generouſly diſcharged him.

Rob. &c. Yeſterday Sarah Jackſon was committed to Newgate, on the Oath of Rich. Merey, for robbing him, in Conjunction with another Female, not yet come to Hand, of the Sum of 2*s.* This Robbery, it ſeems, was done in White-Horſe Alley, in Chick-Lane, where they got him down, and one of them kneeled upon him, while the other rummaged his Pockets, &c.——And the ſame Day, Stephen Marlow, was committed to Newg-Priſon, on a violent Suſpicion of robbing one Mr. Paul, laſt Sunday Even. in a Field near Iſlington, of a Watch, two Silver Seals, and ſome Money.

Pref. The Rev. Mr. Banks is preſented to the Rectory of Knighton in the County of Dorſet and Dioceſe of Briſtol.

Mar. John Butler, Eſq; only Son of James Butler, Eſq; of Warminghurſt-Park in Suſſex, was married, at St. Anne's Church, Soho, to the Siſter of Sir Wm. Morgan, of Tredegar, a very conſiderable Fortune.——The ſame Morn. Mr. Counſellor Wright of the Temple, was married, at St. Bride's, Fleet-Street, to the Siſter of James Wych, of Norfolk, Eſq; a 8000*l.* Fortune.——Mr. Selmon, a wealthy Scarlet Dyer, at Old-Ford, was lately married, at Bow, to a Daughter of Mr. Mitford, formerly Merchant of this City.——As was Yeſterday Morn. Mr. Stephen Jackſon, a noted Vintner in the Strand, to Miſs Ward of Kenſington, a handſome Fortune.——And laſt Monday, at Reading, Mr. Cooke, Druggiſt, of St. Clement's Lane, married the Daughter of Mr. Florey, Brewer, of Reading.

Death. A few Days paſt, died Mr. Tarbox, of Broad-Street, Glazier to the Board of Ordnance, which profitable Place the D. of Argyle continues to the Widow.

THURSDAY, October 15.

Sunday laſt, two of Ld. Caſtlemain's Sons, at Eaton School, quarreled; when the Eldeſt had his Arm broke ſhort off, near the Shoulder, with a great Cudgel.

Tueſday were baptized four Blacks, brought from Jamaica by Major Askew, Dep. Gov. of that Iſland.

Yeſterday, our matchleſs Champion Mr. Figg, who has fought 271 Battels and never worſted, had a deciſive Trial of Skill with Mr. Holmes, the Iriſh Hero, before a moſt numerous Concourſe of Spectators, when at the ſecond Bout Mr. Holmes was utterly diſabled by a deſperate Cut on the Arm.

Geo. Galey, who, with Tho. Sparrow, ſome Time ſince, broke out of Newgate, when under Sentence of Death, was convicted of Burglary, laſt Reading Aſſizes, by the Name of Wm. Ward. When at the Tree, he owned who he was.

By Yeſterday's Poſt from Briſtol, we learn, that five Perſons are apprehended on Account of the Firing Mr. Packer's Houſe: They were over-heard by their Land-lord while converſing on the Subject; and it is not doubted but that, when the Gazette, with Promiſe of Pardon and Reward, appears there, ſome of them will make an ample Diſcovery, to the Deſtruction of that infamous Band of Incendiaries.

We learn from Piſcataqua, in the N. E. of N. England, that Lieut. Gov. Taylor, adviſes them to be on their Guard, againſt the Indians, about 100 of whom had aſſembled near Rutland, 40 Miles from Boſton, where they were doing much Miſchief.

From Falmouth they write, that the Tinners endeavoured to make Wrecks of the two Snows which were ſtranded in the late Storm, loading Pilchards in Mountsbay, in order to have carried off their Materials and Cargoes; But that the Fiſhermen made a notable Defenſe, wherein they were generouſly encouraged by a Magiſtrate, who came to their Aſſiſtance.——It is added, that in the ſaid Storm, on the 5th Inſt. the Sea was carried by the Wind with ſuch Violence into Mevegezy, a Fiſhing-Town between Falmouth and Fowey, that the Water was ſeveral Feet high in many Houſes, and that ſome of them were waſhed quite away.

At the Quarter-Seſſions, laſt Monday, at Guildhall, a certain Conſtable was fined for Extortion, in demanding and taking Money for ſerving a Warrant; which vile Practice (tho' nothing is more common) was by the Court declared altogether illegal.

The following Perſons have thought fit to ſend themſelves out of the World, before their Time; for doing which the Coroner's Inqueſt will, doubtleſs, bring them in Lunatics: Capt. James Douglas, of E. Smithfield, ſhot himſelf, laſt Tueſday.—— —— Jenoway, a Taylor, near Newgate-Street, not having appeared ſince Sunday, was found Yeſterday, in his own Room, hanging by the Neck.——One Emerſon, a Priſoner in the Fleet, on the ſame Day took the ſame Method, in the Common-Side of the ſaid Priſon.——One Vandevold, Pew-Keeper to a Diſſenting Congregation, has alſo done the very ſame.——We have already mentioned the Fate of Tho. Maſters, Eſqr;

Rob. &c. About Two Yeſterday Morn. was broke open the Houſe of Mr. Wm. Vandnon, of Vinegar-Yard, Drury-Lane, and robbed to a very conſiderable Value. About Five, one James Wilſon was taken by the Watch, with divers of the Goods, and is now in Newgate.——Mr. Johnſon, of Ware, in his Way hither, was Yeſterday robbed of 1*l.* 5*s.* and other Things, by two Foot-pads.——The ſame Day were alſo lodged in Newgate the following honeſt Females; Mary Rue, Mary Butler, and Margaret Rich, or Richardſon; the two firſt for picking a Gentleman's Pocket of 12 Guineas and other Money; the latter for purloining a good Quantity of Plate and other Valuables.

Pref. The Rev. Mr. Johnſon is preſented to the Rectory of Clavely in Devonſhire, and Dioceſe of Exeter.——As is the Rev. Mr. Harris to that of Portland, in the County of Dorſet, and Dioceſe of Briſtol.

Death. Died, laſt Week, at her Seat Weſt-Mead in Cardiganſhire, the Relict of Fra. Cornwallis, Eſq; late Mem. of Parl. for the Town of Cardigan in Wales. She left the Bulk of her Eſtate to Sir Rob. Mead, of Ireland, Bart. who married her Niece.

FRIDAY, October 16.

Wedneſday laſt began the Seſſions at the Old-Bailey, when Humphrey Belmoſet and James Rogers were convicted Capitally, for a Street-Robbery: As were Yeſterday three of the young Adventurers ſo often mentioned, taken near Windſor and lately brought to Newgate from Reading Jail. Thoſe condemned are Hugh Morris, Rob. Johnſon and James Obrien, their other two Camarades Wm. Warrington, al. Yates, and Bernad Fink, al. Figg, being admitted Evidences againſt them, went agreat Way towards their Conviction. And at the ſame Time was caſt Geo. Bevis, for robbing Sam. Gillam his Unkle, to near 200l. Value.

His Excellency Abr. Stanyan, Eſq; is daily expected here from Paris, where he lately arrived, in perfect good Health, from his Embaſſy at the Ottoman Court.

It being confirmed from Jerſey, that all the Diſturbances are intirely quelled, by the Submiſſion of the Rioters, a Stop is put to the Imbarcation of thoſe Forces now at Portſmouth, and deſigned for that Iſland.

From Worthbridge, in Suffolk, we are aſſured, that one Clark, a Victualler, this Day ſtands in the Pillory for certain Sodomitical Attempts.

The Dowager Dutcheſs of Marlborough has preſented to her Grand-Son Mr. Spencer, the Place called Nun's-Lodge in Windſor Foreſt, for a Hunting-Seat: It was poſſeſſed by her Grace's late deceaſed Steward, Mr. Hodges.

Yeſterday were launched at Woolwich, in Preſence of abundance of Quality, Gentry, &c. his Majeſty's Ships Neptune and Princeſs Carolina (the firſt a 2d Rate) lately rebuilt.

We have the following from Dublin.

Our Silver gone, and eke our Gold,
What muſt we now rely on?
Wood's Halfpence take, or we are told,
They'll make us take his Iron.
His Iron we muſt buy and ſell,
Tho' Tomkins ſays, in Sport,
No doubt, 'twould feed an Oſtritch well,
Like Cruſt it breaks ſo ſhort.
But whilſt arch Wags this Iron mock,
As paultry Stuff, on Trial,
A Quaker noted for great Stock,
Affirms 'fore G——d, he'll buy all.

A few Days paſt, a Countryman, not well in Health, walking to Portſmouth, deſired a Carter, going alſo thither, to let him ride on his Load of Hay, which was granted: But paſſing under the Gate of the Inn where the Hay was to be unloaded, the Fleſh of the poor Sick Man's Head was ſo torne off, and his Skull ſo miſerably bruiſed, that he ſince expired in great Torments.

The Cautious, Sam. Biggs Maſter, arrived in the Downs from Hamburgh, ſaw the Sweatbland of Southampton, Capt. Boyle (bound alſo from Hamburgh) aſhore near the Mouth of the Elve, and in great Danger of being loſt.

A Girl of 13, riding to Town laſt Wedneſday Even. from Windſor, on the Box of one of the King's Carriages, which brought Part of Ld. Harrington's Baggage, was thrown down in St. James's-Street, and one of the Wheels paſſing over her Body, ſhe died a few Hours after.

The ſame Night, a Milk-Man, named John Lloyd, boxing with a Chairman, was killed on the Spot. The Chairman (whoſe Name I know not) is ſent to Newgate.

Rob. &c. Three or four Nights paſt, Mr. Tho. Trent, Maſter of George's Coffee-Houſe without Temple-Bar, was, in his Return from Iſlington, robbed of 12*s.* and moſt outrageouſly beaten by a ſingle Villain.——Yeſterday were conducted to Newgate three more good Females; viz. Mary Hoare, Sarah Dyer and Mary Vaugh, al. Dyer: The firſt on a vehement Suſpicion of having ſtolen a Silver Tankard, Value 3*l.* from one Wm. Hunter; the others for having, in the Houſe of Suſanna Addiſon aſſaulted one Benj. Thatcher, and ſtripped him of Hat, Peruke, Coat, Waiſtcoat, &c.

Pref. The Rt. Hon. Earl of Tankerville, Knt. of the Thiſtle, has kiſſed the King's Hand, on being made Ld. of the Bed-Chamber to his R. H. the P. of Wales.——A Diſpenſation has been granted to the Rev. Mr. Tho. Wharton, to hold the Vicarage of Baſingſtoke, together with that of Cobham, both in the Dioceſe of Wincheſter.——The Rev. Mr. Chatfeild is preſented to the Rectory of Southeſe, in the County of Suſſex, and Dioceſe of Chicheſter.——Mr. John Mawſon, one of Ld. Viſc. Torrington's Servants, was Yeſterday, appointed Purſer of his Majeſty's Ship South-Sea-Caſtle, now at Portſmouth.

Deaths. Died, laſt Week, near Chelmsford in Eſſex, Dr. Shipcoat, a very eminent Phyſician.——As did, laſt Monday, in Warwickſhire, at his Seat there, Sir Ruſhout Cullen, Bart. without Iſſue: His real Eſtate is left to one of his Nephews and his perſonal to another.——Tueſday Even. laſt (as ſome ſay) Wedneſday at Four in the Afternoon (ſay others) died the Relict of Sir Gabriel Selwyas, a Native of Holland, Knighted by K. Charles II, and a very conſiderable Courtier in that Reign. This Lady (whom our Brethren News-Writers not only killed but buried ſeveral Weeks paſt) was Maid of Honour to Q. Catherine.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Arrived Mails.——Friday; one from Holland.——Sunday day; one from France.——Thurſday; one from France, and three from Flanders.

OUR laſt Advices from Conſtantinople [Capital of the Ottomans] aſſure us, that the Perſians have retaken Tauris, and cut in Pieces the Turkiſh Garriſon. And private Letters lately arrived from the Levant, affirm, that a Peace is actually ſtruck up between thoſe two Muſulman Potentates.——From Leghorn [or rather Livorno] in Tuſcany, they write that no fewer than 25 Algerine Corſairs are now actually on the Criuſe.——From Warſaw, (the Capital of Poland) we learn, that the Plague makes terrible Ravages on the Frontiers of Podolia; and that his Poliſh Majeſty has iſſued ſtrict Orders for cutting off all Communication with the Quarters infected.——And from Amſterdam, under the 13th Inſt. N. S. we have the following Advices: Viz.—— It is now confidently reported here, that the P. R. of Pruſſia will ſoon appear again at Court, a Reconciliation being good as obtained of his Majesty in his Behalf, notwithstanding the Endeavours said to have been made against it by the Minister of his Imperial Majesty; nay, it is affirmed by some, that a considerable Appennage will be settled on his R. H. to maintain his Household.

Rome, Sept. 30. Card. Coscia has at length resigned his Archbishoprick of Benevento, without being able to reserve a Pension out of it: The Pope, however, has allowed his Eminency the Freedom to take the Air within the Districts of Rome, with strict Injunction not to stir out of the Ecclesiastical State.——The Chevalier de St. George, with his two Sons, went hence, last Wednesday, for Albano.

Extract of a Letter from Aubigni, a Lordship, in France, appertaining to his Grace the Duke of Richmond and Lenox.

We want Words to express our Joy, on Tydings of the Birth of the Earl of March. We all in general put ourselves in Arms, and from Eight on Friday Morn. to Sunday Even. we ceased not firing our Artillery; nor do I believe we should have forbore firing till now, had not our Powder failed us. As for the Augustine Fathers, they sung the Te Deum: in the Even. they let off a fine Fire-Work in the Garden of their Convent, which, with abundance of Ceremony, was fired by the Prior, her Grace of Portsmouth's Steward, and by the Messenger who brought us the good News. A fine Colation was prepared in the Convent, where all Comers met with a hearty Welcome. These good Fathers forgot that they had dedicated themselves to a Monastic Life, and passed the whole Night in dancing and gamboling with her Grace's Chamber-Women. &c. singing merry Songs and incessant Carousing.

Next Day, the Ladies, who go by the Name of Poor Nuns, sang also the Te Deum, and that with such Vehemency, that three or four of them became quite hoarse. During the whole three Days the Messenger was (by her Grace of Portsmouth's Command) obliged to continue here, nothing was to be heard but ringing of Bells, firing of Cannon, Chambers, Small Arms, &c. and re-iterated Acclamations of "Long live their Graces, the Earl of March, &c." Her Grace's Domestics, made a very pompous Entertainment; and one of her Officers appeared marching at the Head of a Band of Armed Men who scarce ever ceased discharging Vollies of Musquet Shot, &c. &c. &c.
